

Cultivating Academic Research Empowerment (C.A.R.E): A workshop for Racially Minoritised Health and Care Professionals

Monday 12th May 2025
Hyatt Regency, Manchester, 9:30 am – 5 pm

University of Salford
MANCHESTER

- Do you want to engage more actively in research and increase the diversity of the health and care research community?
- This interactive programme has been designed to EMPOWER racially minoritised health and care professionals, early career researchers and those interested in clinical and applied research; with the tools, insights and support needed to advance your career.
- Includes an overview of the NIHR Academy Fellowship Programme and the opportunity to learn from lived experience of leading ethnic minority researchers.

Faculty includes:

- Prof. Bhuvaneswari Krishnamoorthy, Prof. Heather Iles-Smith (University of Salford)
- Prof. Yemisi Takwoingi (University of Birmingham and REDiC lead)
- Dr. Humaria Abbas and Dr. Henry Mbawa Jr (NIHR Academy)
- Dr. Fozia Ahmed, Ms. Angela Kelsall (NIHR BRC, Manchester)
- Prof. Catherine Robinson and Prof. Rachel Cowen (University of Manchester)
- Ms. Jo-Anne Simpson and Ms. Gillian Southgate (NHS R&D Northwest)

Places are limited
Register here
NOW

